IT having been represented to His Majesty, that several Persons who formerly obtained Orders from His Majesty in Council for Grants of Land in the Province of Nova Scotia, have not proceeded to locate and survey the Lands directed to be granted to them by such Orders, but have, in many Instances, sold and transferred them to others, who have also delayed to carry them into Execution, to the great Injury of His Majesty's Revenue of Quit Rents, and Retardment of the Cultivation and Improvement of the said Province: His Majesty is thereupon pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to revoke and make void (and doth hereby revoke and make void) all Orders made by His Majesty in Council for the Grant of Lands in the Province of Nova Scotia, which bear Date prior to the 1st of January, 1774, and have not yet been carried into Execution: And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that the Governor or Commander in Chief for the Time being of His Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia, do forbear to issue any Order of Survey to the Surveyor-General of Lands in the said Province, or to pass any Grants under the Seal of that Province, of any Lot or Parcel of Land within the said Province, in Pursuance of any Order made by His Majesty in Council, which bears Date prior to the 1st Day of January, 1774: And that this His Majesty's Order in Council be published in The London Gazette, to the End that all Persons concerned may have due Notice thereof.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 8th of August, 1783,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that sundry Ships and Vessels are arrived, and others expected daily to arrive, from Dantzick and other Ports in Royal and Ducal Prussia and Pomerania, laden solely with Corn and other Grain; that the Corn from the Baltick, by the Length of the Voyage and the Warmth of the Weather, is very much heated, and nearly in a State of Fermentation; and that it is of the utmost Importance that the said Ships and Vessels should be exempted from the Performance of Quarantine, and permitted to deliver their Cargoes as soon as possible after their Arrival; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That the Quarantine at present subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from Dantzick, or any other Port or Place in Royal and Ducal Prussia or Pomerania, so far as respects Ships laden with Corn or Grain, be taken off; and that all Ships and Vessels already arrived, or that may hereafter arrive from those Places, laden with Corn or Grain, be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine; provided the proper Officer, on mustering muſtering the Crew, ſhall find them all in Health; that none of the Crew have died or been ſick of any contagious Diſtemper during the Voyage; that the Ship hath not had Communication with any Ship or Veſſel coming from any infected Place; and that there are no Enumerated Goods on board, other than the Bags or Sacks in which the ſaid Corn is contained, or Matts made Uſe of ſolely for the Purpoſe of Dunnage: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, His Majeſty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being, of the Iſles of Jerſey, Guernſey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

Dublin Caſtle, Auguſt 20, 1783.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant has been pleaſed to appoint the Honorable Thomas Pelham to be his Excellency's Chief Secretary, in the Room of the Right Honorable William Windham, who has reſigned.

Peterſburgh, Auguſt 1. The following is a Tranſlation of the Manifeſto publiſhed by Order of the Empreſs, upon the Occaſion of her Troops entering the Peninſula of the Crimea, the Cuban, and the Iſland of Taman; which Countries are thereby declared to be annexed to her Imperial Majeſty's Dominions.

WE Catherine the Second, by the Grace of God, Empreſs and Sole Monarch of all the Ruſſias, &c. &c. &c.

OUR laſt War againſt the Ottoman Empire having been attended with the moſt ſignal Succeſſes, we had certainly acquired the Right of re-uniting to the Territories of our Empire the Crimea, of which we were in Poſſeſſion: We, however, heſitated not to ſacrifice that, with many other Conqueſts, to our ardent Deſire of re-eſtabliſhing the Public Tranquility, and of confirming the good Underſtanding and Friendſhip between our Empire and the Ottoman Porte. This Motive induced us to ſtipulate for the Freedom and Independence of the Tartars, whom we had reduced by our Arms; hoping to remove for ever, by this Means, every Cauſe of Diſſenſion, and even of Coolneſs, between Ruſſia and the Ottoman Porte, expoſed too often to theſe Inconveniencies by the Form of Government which then ſubſiſted among the Tartars.

Great as were our Sacrifices and our Efforts for realiſiing thoſe Hopes, they were ſoon, to our great Regret, conſiderably diminiſhed. The Reſtleſſneſs natural to the Tartars, fomented by Inſinuations, the Source of which is not unknown to us, cauſed them eaſily to fall into a Snare laid by Foreign Hands, which had ſowed amongſt them the Seeds of Diſturbance and Confuſion to ſuch a Degree, as to induce them to labour for the weakening, and even the total Ruin of an Edifice which our beneficent Cares had erected for the Happineſs of that Nation, by procuring them Liberty and Independence, under the Authority of a Chief elected by themſelves. Hardly was their Khan eſtabliſhed according to this new Form of Government, before he ſaw himſelf deprived of all Authority, and even obliged to deſert his Country, to give Place to an Uſurper, who would again ſubject the Tartars to the Yoke of a Dominion, from which our Beneficence had releaſed them. The greater Part of them, as blind as they were ignorant, had ſubmitted to that Uſurper; the Reſt, thinking themſelves too weak to reſiſt, would infallibly have yielded to his Yoke; and thus we ſhould have loſt the Fruits of our Victories, and the principal Recompence for the Sacrifices which we willingly made at the laſt Peace, if we had not inſtantly taken under our immediate Protection, ſuch of the well-diſpoſed Tartars, who, prizing the Bleſſings of their new political Exiſtence, lamented their being forced to ſubmit to the Uſurper who had expelled their lawful Khan. By thus effectually protecting them, we furniſhed them with the Power and the Means of chuſing a new Khan, in the Room of Sahib-Gheray, and of eſtabliſhing an Adminiſtration analagous to this State of Affairs. It was to attain this End that our Military Forces were put in Motion; that a conſiderable Body of our Troops were ordered, notwithſtanding the Severity of the Seaſon, to enter the Crimea, where they were ſubſiſted at our Expence, and obliged to exert the Power of our Arms for the Support of the good Cauſe, in order to recall ſuch of the Tartars as were eſtranged from it by their Revolt. The Public is not ignorant that a Rupture between Ruſſia and the Ottoman Porte had very near enſued upon this Occaſion; but, Thanks to the Divine Aſſiſtance, we diſpoſed Matters in ſuch a Manner, that the Ottoman Porte again acknowledged the Independence of the Tartars, and the Validity of the Election of Schaghin-Gheray, their lawful Sovereign. Notwithſtanding all the Inconveniencies above-mentioned, as long as we were ſuſtained and animated by the Hope of re-eſtabliſhing the Repoſe neceſſary to the Advantage and Preſervation of good Neigbourhood with the Ottoman Empire, we regarded the Crimea according to Tenour and Letter of the Treaties, as a free and independent Country, confining ourſelf ſolely to appeaſing the Troubles which prevailed amongſt them: From our Love of Peace we found in this Conduct a ſufficinet Recompence for the great Expences incurred by it; but we were ſoon undeceived in this Reſpect by the freſh Revolt occaſioned in the Crimea laſt Year, the Encouragement of which always flowed from the ſame Source. We have been obliged in conſequence to have Recourſe again to conſiderable Armaments, and to cauſe Troops to enter into the Crimea and the Cuban, whoſe Preſence is become indiſpenſable for maintaining Tranquility and good Order in the adjacent Countries. The ſad Experience of every Day demonſtrates more clearly, that if the Sovereignty of the Ottoman Porte in the Crimea was a perpetual Source of Diſcord between our Two Empires, the Independence of the Tartars expoſes us to Subjects of Contention no leſs numerous and important, ſince the long Servitude to which that People have been accuſtomed, has rendered the greater Part of the Individuals incapable of valuing the Advantages of the new Situation procured for them by that Indepence of which we ſought to give them the Enjoyment; and which, laying us under the Neceſſity of being always armed, occaſions not only great Expences, but alſo expoſes our Troops to inevitable and continual Fatigues.

The Efforts they made to extinguiſh the Flame of Diſcord, in ſuccouring the Well-intentioned of that Nation, expoſed them to the Violences of the Seditious and and Ill-intentioned, whom we were willing to leave unpuniſhed, in order to avoid even the Shadow of an Act of Sovereignty, ſo long as we could cheriſh the leaſt Hope of at length reſtoring good Order, and preventing by this Means the eſſential Intereſts of our Empire from being injured.

But to our great Regret all theſe Meaſures, dictated ſolely by our Love of Humanity, tended only to bring upon us Loſſes and Damages, which we have the more ſenſibly at Heart, as they affected our Subjects. The Loſs in Men is not to be appreciated; we will not attempt to eſtimate it; that in Money, according to the moſt moderate Calculations, amounts to upwards of Twelve Millions of Roubles. To theſe Particulars is to be added another of the utmoſt Importance, both in its Object and with regard to its Conſequences: We have juſt been informed that the Porte has begun to lay Claim to the Exerciſe of Sovereignty in the Tartar Dominions, by ſending one of their Officers, at the Head of a Detachment of Troops, to the Iſland of Taman, who has even proceeded to cauſe the Officer to be publickly beheaded who was ſent to him by the Khan Schaghin-Gheray, with a Commiſſion only to enquire of him what were the Motives for his Arrival in that Iſland; and what evidently proves the Nature of the Miſſion of this Commandant of the Troops is, that he made no Difficulty in declaring openly to the Inhabitants of Taman, that he looked upon them as Subjects of the Porte. This deciſive though unexpected Step, convincing us of the Inutility of the Sacrifices we had made upon the laſt Peace, annuls in Conſequence the Engagements we had contracted, with the ſole Intention of firmly eſtabliſhing the Freedom and Independence of the Tartars, and ſufficiently authorizes us to enter again into the Enjoyment of thoſe Rights which we had lawfully acquired by Conqueſt; the more ſo, as it is the only Means remaining for us to ſecure hereafter a ſolid and permanent Peace between the Two Empires. Animated therefore with a ſincere Deſire of confirming and maintaining the laſt Peace concluded with the Porte, by preventing the continual Diſputes which the Affairs of the Crimea produced, our Duty to ourſelf, and the Preſervation of the Security of our Empire, equally demand our taking the firm Reſolution to put an End, once for all, to the Troubles in the Crimea; and for this Purpoſe we re-unite to our Empire the Peninſula of Crimea, the Iſland of Taman, and all the Cuban, as a juſt Indemnification for the Loſſes ſuſtained, and the Expences we have been obliged to incur in maintaining the Peace and Welfare of theſe Territories.

In declaring to the Inhabitants of thoſe Countries by the preſent Manifeſto, that ſuch is our Imperial Pleaſure, we promiſe them, for us and our Succeſſors in the Imperial Throne of Ruſſia, that they ſhall be treated upon an Equality with our ancient Subjects; and that, in taking them under our high Protection, we will defend againſt all People their Perſons, their Eſtates, their Temples, and the Religion they profeſs; that they ſhall enjoy the moſt abſolute Liberty of Conſcience, without the leaſt Reſtriction, in the public Exerciſe of their Worſhip and their Ceremonies; and that not only the Nation in general, but alſo each Individual in particular, ſhall participate in all the Advantages enjoyed by our ancient Subjects. But we alſo expect, from the Gratitude of our new Subjects, that, touched with theſe Favours, they will be ſenſible of the Value of this fortunate Revolution, which removes them from a convulſed State of Diſturbances and Diſſenſions to one of entire Security and perfect Tranquility under the Protection of the Laws; and that, ſtriving to imitate the Submiſſion, Zeal, and Fidelity of thoſe who have long had the Happineſs of living under our Government, they will render themſelves worthy of our Imperial Favour, Beneficence, and Protection. Given at our Imperial Reſidence of St. Peterſburgh, the 8th of April, in the Year of Grace, 1783, and in the 21ſt Year of our Reign.

(Signed with her Imperial Majeſty's own Hand) CATHERINE.

The FOURTH EDITION of

An ESSAY on the VIRTUES of Dr. NORRIS's DROPS:

TO WHICH ARE ADDED,

Many Letters and Caſes, voluntarily addreſſed by the Parties to Dr. NORRIS, and at their Requeſt now publiſhed, incontestibly proving the unequalled Efficacy of this Medicine in curing EVERY Species of

with the greateſt Eaſe and Safety, even when the Diſorder has baffled the Efforts of the moſt eminent of the Faculty, and every other Means that Science could deviſe, have been reſorted to in vain.

EXPERIENCE in an extenſive Practice for a long Series of Years, in which the Efficacy of this Medicine has been proved in many Thouſand Caſes, eſtabliſhes it as the ſafeſt Remedy yet diſcovered for every Kind of Fever;—ſuch is its ſpecific quality, that by reconciling Nature to herſelf, the Danger is removed in a few Hours, and, to the Aſtoniſhment of thoſe preſent, the Cure is effected without the leaſt Violence in Operation, or tumultuous Anxiety to the Patient, and conſequently it is one of the long-wiſhed for DESIDERATA IN PHYSIC.

That SPECIES of FEVER commonly, although erroneouſly termed NERVOUS, the Reproach of Phyſic, certainly yields in a ſhort Time to the Power of theſe Drops; Perſpiration, gentle yet continual, the ſure and certain Attendant of Health, is induced,—the Circulation of the Fluids through the minuteſt Veſſels is encouraged,—and the Train of vain Fears, ſleepleſs Nights, and indefinable Anxiety incident to Nervous Caſes, give Place to Serenity and Cheerfulneſs; Nature is enabled throw off that which oppreſſed her, and the Patient is bleſſed with renovated Health and Spirits.—Theſe are the happy Effects of this noble Medicine, when taken as an Alterativ

HECTIC CASES, the firſt Stage of a CONSUMPTION, and to which ſo many of our Youth are devoted, are ever attended with a Fever; a Tea-ſpoonful, two, or three of theſe Drops, in half a Pint of Aſſes or Cow's Milk, taken Morning and Evening, remove the Cauſe, invigorate the Frame, and reſtore the Patient, even in advanced Stages, when the moſt alarming Symptoms appear.

GOUTY and RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS are relieved and cured by this Medicine, promoting and ſupporting inſenſible Perſpiration, from the Obſtruction whereof innumerable Diſorders ariſe.

In the SCURVY, by ſweetning the Blood, and enabling it to throw off thoſe acrid Salts, the Baſis of the Diſorder, they effect a Cure, and prevent a Return.

In LOWNESS of SPIRITS, in SICKNESS of the STOMACH, INDIGESTION, and particularly in all BILIOUS DISORDERS, and obſtinate COSTIVENESS, from the too frequent Uſe of Cathartics, and in Pains of the Stomach and Bowels, there is not their Equal for Efficacy and Safety.

In the NATURAL INFIRMITIES of advanced Life, particularly in old obſtinate COUGHS, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS, this Medicine will be found moſt ſalubrious, reſtoring the balſamic Qualities of the Blood, and enabling Nature to reſiſt the Attacks of theſe Diſorders; where tough Phlegm abounds, and is with great Difficulty diſcharged, they facilitate Expectoration in an amazing Degree.

In DISORDERS incident to the FAIR SEX, ariſing from Obſtructions at a certain Time of Life, there is no Medicine ſo deſerving their Confidence, or which will reſtore Health with ſuch Certainty and Eaſe.

FEVERS, BILIOUS COMPLAINTS, and FLUXES, the Bane of EUROPEANS in HOT CLIMATES, are cured in a few Hours, and every dangerous Symptom removed; and as this Medicine is incorruptible, and rather improves by Time, there needs no further Recommendation thereof to CAPTAINS of SHIPS, and Perſons going to the INDIES and AMERICA, to make it an Article in their Store.
